

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Speaker and members of the Legislature, since all this amendment does is to strip the contents that currently are in 779 and place in their stead the amendment we have been discussing, I won't have any additional comment. That is the motion. After that is done, and I hope it will be done, there can be a more detailed discussion, if necessary, of the amendment itself.

SPEAKER WITHEM: You've heard the closing. The question is the adoption of the Judiciary Committee amendment to LB 779. All in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. A record vote has been requested. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: (Read record vote. See page 775 of the Legislative Journal.) 27 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of the amendment.

SPEAKER WITHEM: The amendment is adopted.

CLERK: I have nothing further on the bill, Mr. President.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Nothing further on the bill, then the question is the advancement of LB 779 to E & R engrossing. Is there any discussion? Seeing none, all in favor of advancement indicate by saying aye. All opposed say nay. All in favor say aye. All opposed say nay. LB 779 is advanced. Next item, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, LB 100 is on Select File. Enrollment and Review amendments were adopted last year. I have pending...I have nothing pending to the bill at this time. I had amendments that were adopted last year but nothing pending at this time, Mr. President.

SPEAKER WITHEM: The Chair recognizes Senator Byars for purposes of reacquainting the membership with the bill.

SENATOR BYARS: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. If you will remember right in our debates last year, and to bring you current up to where we left off and where we are today, and the new members, of course, will be brought up to speed I think during debate, LB 100 is a bill that changes the compulsory age laws as far as the age that students must attend school in the State of Nebraska, and raises it from 16 to 18 years of age. When the bill was introduced, it was just exactly that pure. There were
